Turabian Bibliography Examples

Book:

Author’s last name, Author’s first name. Title of Book. Edition. City of Publication: Publisher, Publication Year.

Editor’s last name, Editor’s first name, ed. Title of Book. Edition. City of Publication: Publisher, Publication Year.

First author’s last name, First author’s first name and Second author’s first and last name. Title of Book. City of Publication: Publisher, Publication Year.

For 4+ authors: First author’s last name, First author’s first name et al. Title of Book. Edition. City of Publication: Publisher, Publication Year.

Book Chapter from an Edited Collection or Anthology:

Chapter writer’s last name, Chapter writer’s first name. “Chapter Title.” In Title of Book, edited by Editors’ first and last names, page numbers of chapter. City of Publication: Publisher, Publication Year.

E-Book:

Author’s last name, Author’s first name. Title of E-book. City of Publication: Publisher, Publication Year. Accessed Month Day, Year. URL of e-book OR Database name OR Format of e-book.

Online Journal Article:

Author’s last name, Author’s first name. “Article Title.” Journal Title volume number, issue number (Publication Month and Year): page numbers. Accessed Month Day, Year. DOI OR Database name OR Article URL.

Online Magazine Article:

Author’s last name, Author’s first name. “Article Title.” Magazine Title, Publication Month Day, Year. Accessed Month Day, Year. Article URL.

Online Newspaper Article (only cite in the Notes of your paper, unless it is frequently cited or a key part of your argument):

Author’s last name, Author’s first name. “Article Title.” Newspaper Title, Publication Month Day, Year. Accessed Month Day, Year. Article URL OR Database name.

Online Report (only cite in the Notes of your paper, unless it is frequently cited or a key part of your argument):

Author’s last name, Author’s first name. Report Title. City of Publication: Publisher, Publication Year. Accessed Month Day, Year. Report URL.

Website (only cite in the Notes of your paper, unless it is frequently cited or a key part of your argument):

Author’s last name, Author’s first name OR Organizational author. “Title of Page.” Website Title. Last modified Month Day, Year. Accessed Month Day, Year. Website URL.

Blog Posts (only cite in the Notes of your paper, unless it is frequently cited or a key part of your argument):

Author last Name, Author first name OR Username. “Title of Blog Post.” Blog Title, Date of Posting. Accessed Month Day, Year. Post URL.

Don’t see your source? Check in A Manual for Writers (available at the Library’s front desk) or ask a librarian, your professor, or a tutor for help.
Turabian In-Text Citations (Notes)

When citing in Turabian style, you need to use numbered endnotes or footnotes in the body of your paper. When citing a work for the first time, you must write the full citation in your notes; these examples here will guide you through creating those initial in-text-citations. After the first citation, the rules will change slightly (see page 8 for more information!).

THE FIRST TIME YOU REFER TO A SOURCE IN YOUR PAPER:

Book with one to three authors:

Footnote #. Author’s first and last name, Book Title, ___th ed. (City of Publication: Publisher, Year), page #.

Book with four or more authors:

Footnote #. First author’s first and last name et al., Title, ___th ed. (City of Publication: Publisher, Year), page #.

Book Chapter from an Edited Collection or Anthology:

Footnote #. Chapter writer’s first and last name, “Chapter Title,” in Book Title, ed. Editors’ first and last name (City of Publication: Publisher, Year), page #.

E-book:

Footnote #. Author’s first and last name, Title of E-book (City of Publication: Publisher, Year), page #, accessed Month Day, Year, URL of e-book OR Database name OR Format of e-book.

---

1 Your in-text citations will go here or in the endnotes, which come at the end of your paper, but before the bibliography. To create a footnote, go to “References” in Word and click “Insert Footnote”. To create an endnote, go to “References” in Word and click “Insert Endnote”.
Online Journal Article:

Footnote #. Author’s first and last name, “Article Title,” Journal Title volume number, issue number (Publication Month and Year): page number of specific passage used OR entire article, accessed Month Day, Year, DOI OR Article URL OR Database name.

Online Magazine Article:

Footnote #. Author’s first and last name, “Article Title,” Title of Magazine, Publication Month Day, Year, accessed Month Day, Year, URL of article.

Online Newspaper Article (only cite in the Notes of your paper, unless it is frequently cited or a key part of your argument):

Footnote #. Author’s first and last name, “Article Title,” Title of Newspaper, Publication Month Day, Year, accessed Month Day, Year, URL of Article OR Database name.

Article in an Online Encyclopedia or Dictionary (only cite in the Notes of your paper, unless it is frequently cited or a key part of your argument):

Website (only cite in the Notes of your paper, unless it is frequently cited or a key part of your argument):

Footnote #. Author’s first and last name OR Organizational author, “Title of the Page,” Title of Website, last modified Month Day, Year, accessed Month Day, Year, URL.

Online Reports (only cite in the Notes of your paper, unless it is frequently cited or a key part of your argument):

Footnote #. Author’s first and last name, Report Title (City of Publication: Publisher, Date of Publication), page numbers, accessed Month Day, Year, URL of report.

Blog (only cite in the Notes of your paper, unless it is frequently cited or a key part of your argument):

Footnote #. Author’s first and last name OR Organizational author, “Title of Post,” Blog Title, Date of Publication or Modification, accessed Month Day, Year, URL.

Social Media (only cite in the Notes of your paper, unless it is frequently cited or a key part of your argument):

Footnote #. Author’s first and last name OR Username OR Organizational author, Type of Social Media posting, Date of Post (Time Posted), accessed Month Day, Year, URL of account.

Tables (only cite in the Notes of your paper, unless it is frequently cited or a key part of your argument):

Footnote #. Source: Data from Author’s first and last name, Title of Work (Place of Publication: Publisher, Publication Year), page #, table name and table #.

OR

Footnote #. Source: Data from Author’s first and last name, “Article Title,” Journal Title volume #, issue # (Publication Month and Year): page numbers.

OR

Footnote #. Source: Data from Author’s first and last name OR Organization, “Title of the Page,” Title of Website, last modified Month Day, Year, accessed Month, Day, Year, URL.

Interview (only cite in the Notes of your paper, unless it is frequently cited or a key part of your argument):

Footnote #. First and last name of individual interviewed, interview by author, Location of interview, Date of interview.

OR

Footnote #. First and last name of individual interviewed, email message to author OR telephone conversation to author, Month Day, Year of communication.

Artwork and Photographs (only cite in the Notes of your paper, unless it is frequently cited or a key part of your argument):

Footnote #. Artist’s name, Title of the Artwork, Year of creation, Museum, Museum location, accessed Month Day, Year, URL of image (if accessed online).

Cartoons, Advertisements, and Maps (only cite in the Notes of your paper, unless it is frequently cited or a key part of your argument):

Footnote #. Creator’s first and last name, “Title of image” (type of graphic), Name of image source, accessed Month Day, Year, URL (if online).

REFERRING TO A SOURCE AFTER ITS FIRST CITATION IN YOUR PAPER:

Referring to a work immediately after its first citation, use “Ibid.” (which means “in the same place”):

Footnote #. Ibid., page #.

2. Ibid., 25.

Referring to a work, but not immediately after first citation, use shortened form of citation:

Footnote #. Author’s last name, page #.

If you are citing more than one book by the same author, use author’s last and shortened book title:

Footnote #. Author’s last name, Title, page #.

If you are citing more than one article by the same author, use author’s last name and shortened article title:

Footnote #. Author’s last name, “Article Title”, page #.